

B and M President to Speak Before Amherst RR Society

ALAN DUSTIN

WARREN — Alan G. Dustin, president, chief executive and chief operating officer of the Boston and Maine Railroad will be guest speaker at a meeting of the Amherst Railway Society Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the University of Massachusetts.

Robert A. Buck of this town, one of the area's railroad enthusiasts who is active in the society, said the public is welcome to attend the program which is to be held in the Engineering Auditorium-East. Parking Lot 65 is available to those attending.

Dustin, a native of Rouses Point, N.Y. resides in Merrimack. His career in railroading goes back to 1947 when he was a baggage clerk with the Delaware and Hudson. He served in the Army from 1949-51 and following that he was a telegraph operator, station agent and train dispatcher. In 1955 he was assistant trainmaster for the D & H and went to become assistant to the president and general manager of the line.

In 1968 he joined the Erie Lackawanna as assistant to vice president for operations and maintenance in Cleveland, Ohio. In 1969 he became division superintendent in Scranton, Pennsylvania.